THE NEXT PRESIDENT

I get asked a lot about my views regarding the Presidential campaigns. I am always slightly embarrassed to let it out how little attention I give to what is truly an important matter. My problem is a lack of inspiration. I am not inspired by anything I hear regarding the high offices of our nation. I am inspired by past presidents. I like Ike (warning against the Military-Industrial complex). I like Abe (listening to the better angels within us- Gettysburg). I like this quote from Bobby Kennedy's campaign in the late sixties:

"Too much and too long, we seem to have surrendered community excellence and community values in the mere accumulation of material things. Our gross national product, now, is over eight hundred billion dollars a year, but the GNP--if we should judge America by that--counts air pollution and cigarette advertising, and ambulances to clear our highways of carnage. It counts special locks for our doors and the jails for those who break them. It counts the destruction of our redwoods and loss of our natural wonder in chaotic sprawl. It counts napalm and the cost of a nuclear warhead...and the television programs which glorify violence in order to sell toys to our children. Yet the gross national product does not allow for the health of our children, the quality of their education, or the joy of their play. It does not include the beauty of our poetry or the strength of our marriages; the intelligence of our public debate or the integrity of our public officials. It measures neither our wit nor our courage...it measures everything, in short, except that which makes life worthwhile."

If we had speeches like this today, maybe it would be a little easier to emotionally invest in a presidential campaign.

What do you think?

Jason Coriell

100% Sunday Coming

Yes, we all remember 100% from September 14, 2003. It was a big day for Sunshine. We had 343 in attendance. Not quite 100% of our membership but at least in the high 80's. We are planning another 100% Sunday on October 19, 2008. We are striving to get every person who has any connection with Sunshine to be present for our worship and Bible Classes on that day. We'll start with our worship assembly at 10 am. At the conclusion of the service we'll have THE BIG PICTURE made in the auditorium. We'll go from there to THE FEEDING OF THE FOUR HUNDRED (my rough estimate of what 100% attendance would be) and after the meal we'll have our Bible classes. We should be done for the day around 2 or 2:15. Please mark this date and pray about the success of the day. We need to round up some of our members who have wandered away and this day could be just the thing they need. Steve.

So That Joy May Be Full

I John 1:1-2:2

Boredom, unrest, frustration, fear, anxiety, and depression are rampant in our world. Most people in the world cannot generally be called happy or joyful. Are the words of Paul appropriate for today? "Rejoice in the Lord always..." (Phil. 4:4). The exhortation to rejoice is directed to Christians. Non-Christians really have nothing to rejoice about, so far as the spirit is concerned.

The apostle John's first letter provides a helpful guide to those who want to rejoice in the Lord. Every joy-seeker should learn and apply the message of I John.

Things that prevent joy.

- ▶ Unbelief. 5:10
- ▶ Fellowship with the devil. 3:8
- ▶ Hatred. 3:15
- ▶ Selfishness. 3:17
- ▶ Guilty conscience. 3:20
- ▶ Fear. 4:18b
- ▶ The prospect of eternal death. 3:8, 14b, and 15

Things that produce joy.

- ▶ Faith and faithfulness. 2:21, 5:4
- ▶ Fellowship with God. 1:3, 3:1-2
- ▶ Love. 4:7-8 and 16, 5:1-3
- ▶ Unselfishness. 3:16-18
- ▶ A clear conscience. 3:19, 21
- ▶ Hope, no fear. 4:18, 1:6-7, 2:5
- ▶ The prospect of eternal life. 2:25, 5:13

The Christian's joy is directly related to Christ, His love and goodness, and most of all to the effectiveness of His sacrifice.

- ▶ Sin does not have to end in eternal death. It can be forgiven.
- ▶ But forgiveness and cleansing are only to those who confess their need of it and seek it from Christ for themselves.
- ▶ Joy is an internal thing, based upon one's perception of himself as belonging to Christ and being faithful to Christ.
- ▶ Christian joy not subject to or affected by external conditions.
